

SENATE HAS APPROVED ALL ARMS CONFERENCE TREATIES

Vote Was Unanimous on Treaty Giving a New Bill of Rights to China—One Dissenting Vote Was Cast on the Agreement For Revision of the Chinese Tariff Treaty—Five of the Seven Treaties Were Ratified With Virtual Unanimity.

Washington, March 30.—The senate completed its part of the arms conference program today by giving its approval to the last two treaties of the group of seven submitted to it for ratification. Over the tariff treaty several day exchanges took place, with Senator Hitchcock, senior democrat of the foreign relations committee, and Senator King, democrat, Utah, leading in criticism of American participation in the

On the final ratification roll calls the affirmative expression of senate opinion was all but unanimous. Not a single vote was cast against the far eastern treaty, drawn to guarantee a new bill of rights to China and there was only one dissenting voice when the constitutional

The momentum with which the ratification program was swept to a conclusion exceeded the expectations of the administration. The final senate action on the treaties was taken in a matter of days. administration leaders who had not hoped to end the debate before tomorrow night. By the day's accomplishment the senate set a new record for action, four far-reaching international covenants having been ratified within two days, and six others still in the process.

Virtually no difference of opinion developed over the far eastern treaty, although Senator Borah expressed a fear that it and the other far eastern settlements of the arms conference might be interpreted in years to come as giving the United States no right of interference in the Pacific.
